Chris Summers Named Finance and Accounting Practice Director at The Intersect Group

ATLANTA – Oct. 21, 2008 – Chris Summers is now serving as finance and accounting practice director at The Intersect Group, an Atlanta-based provider of finance, accounting, IT and executive advisory services. An experienced finance and accounting consultant, Summers enhances the firm’s ability to deliver strategy articulation, corporate governance, and accounting, billing and financial management services to The Intersect Group clients.

Summers applies significant expertise in strategic, financial and project management best practices gained during his 20-year career. Prior to joining The Intersect Group, he managed a large-scale strategy articulation project at Agco Corporation. He also managed Agco’s integration of a large European farm tractor manufacturer and served as a divisional controller for a start-up division. In addition, Summers has served as controller for a $150 million regional airline; as director of finance and business manager for an independent Atlanta school; and as an auditor with BDO Seidman, serving clients in the airline, carpet manufacturing, waste management, franchising, flexible packaging, and non-profit industries. Summers has a BBA from the University of Georgia, an MBA from Georgia State University, and is a CPA.

“Our clients value Chris’ depth and variety of experience, and his business acumen,” said The Intersect Group’s Wade Hughes, consulting partner. “His ability to apply his strategic planning and financial best practices expertise utilizing multiple accounting and ERP systems and diverse processes provides significant client benefit.”
